

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Supplement No. 1 published with Extraordinary
Gazette No. 14 dated 23 May, 2008.

A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE ELECTIONS LAW (2004 REVISION) TO FURTHER REFINE THE ELECTION LEGISLATIVE SCHEME OF THE ISLANDS; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE ELECTIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2008

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Elections Law (2004 Revision) to further refine the election legislative scheme of the Cayman Islands.

Clause 1 of the Bill provides the short title of the legislation.

Clause 2 amends section 2 of the principal Law to define the term “mobile station” for the purposes of the legislation.

Clause 3 inserts into the principal Law new sections 49A and 49B to make provision for certain electors (for example, a person who is in hospital) to vote at a mobile polling station.

Clause 4 repeals and replaces sections 50 and 51 of the principal Law, as a consequence of the new provisions relating to mobile polling stations. The new section 50 would provide that postal voting can be carried out only in a case where an elector is unable, or likely to be unable, to go in person to the polling station due to his absence outside the Islands. By virtue of the new section 51, an application to be treated as an absent elector would relate to a particular election only, thereby removing the right to make a general application to be treated as an absent elector based on the general nature of the applicant’s occupation.

Clause 5 amends section 107 of the principal Law to enable the Governor in Cabinet, acting on the recommendation of the Supervisor of Elections, to make rules relating to the taking of votes at a mobile polling station.

Clause 6 amends the Third Schedule to provide for the insertion into the principal Law of an application form for use by a person seeking to be treated as an absent elector voting at a mobile polling station.
