A BILL FOR A LAW TO PROVIDE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN TYPES OF BUSINESSES; AND TO PROVIDE FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES BILL, 2011

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to provide for the establishment and operation of special economic zones in respect of certain types of businesses.

Part 1 of the Bill contains clauses 1 and 2 which are preliminary provisions.

Clause 1 provides the short title.

Clause 2 contains definitions.

Part 2 of the Bill contains clauses 3 to 9 which provide for the establishment, functions and powers of the Special Economic Zone Authority.

Clause 3 provides for the establishment of the Authority, and for the constitution and procedure of the Authority to be specified in Schedule 1.

Clause 4 provides for the Governor in Cabinet to designate a Department of Government as the Secretariat to the Authority and to be responsible for the day to day administration of the Authority.

Clause 5 provides for the functions of the Authority which include to advise the Minister on all aspects of establishment of special economic zones, examine and process applications for establishment of special economic zones and issue relevant approvals and act as a one-stop shop centre through which a special economic zone enterprise can channel all its applications for permits and facilities not handled directly by the Authority.

Clause 6 empowers the Authority to facilitate the procurement, management, reclamation and disposal of land and other property for the purpose of a special economic zone; the carrying out of development works and other building operations in, on or in respect of a special economic zone; and the preservation, maintenance, regulation, management and improvement of a special economic zone and to provide additional facilities to it.

Clause 7 provides for the duty of confidentiality on the part of members of the Authority.

Clause 8 provides for the remuneration of members of the Authority.

Clause 9 provides for protection from liability and indemnification of members of the Authority.

Part 3 of the Bill contains clauses 10 and 11 which provide for special economic zones.

Clause 10 provides for the declaration of a special economic zone by the Governor in Cabinet which names the special economic zone, defines the geographical limits of the special economic zone and specifies the types of special economic zone business authorized to be carried on in the special economic zone.

Clause 11 provides for a special economic zone to be deemed to be outside of the Islands for the purposes of Parts VII and VIIIA and section 201(2)(f) of the Companies Law which deals with exempted companies, sections 4(1) and 9(1)(f) of the Exempted Limited Partnership Law (which respectively deal with the constitution and registration of exempted limited partnerships) and clause 18 of the legislation (which prohibits the carrying on of trade in the Islands by a special economic zone enterprise and provides for the carrying on of business by a special economic zone enterprise mainly outside of the Islands).

Part 4 of the Bill contains clause 12 which provides for the declaration of a developer for the purposes of developing and operating a special economic zone.

Part 5 of the Bill contains clauses 13 to 27 which provide for trade certificates.

Clause 13 prohibits a person from carrying on special economic zone business within a special economic zone and from having the benefits of Part 5 and the relevant Schedules unless the person holds a valid trade certificate.

Clause 14 provides for the procedure for application for a trade certificate.

Clause 15 empowers the Authority to request additional information from an applicant for the purpose of considering an application for a trade certificate.

Clause 16 provides for the grant or refusal of a trade certificate and for reasons in writing to be given for a refusal.

Clause 17 provides for the issuance of a trade certificate and for the form of the trade certificate.

Clause 18 provides for a special economic zone enterprise to be entitled to the benefits set out in the relevant Schedules and for a special economic zone enterprise to have as its principal purpose the carrying on of business mainly outside of the Islands (which includes the special economic zone because of the provision in section 11 which deems the special economic zone to be outside of the Islands). Clause 18 also prohibits a special economic zone enterprise from trading in the Islands with any person, firm or corporation except for the purposes that are ancillary to or in furtherance of its business carried on outside the Islands.

Clause 19 prohibits the application of price control to the sale of any article, goods or services sold or supplied by a special economic zone enterprise from or within a special economic zone in the course of carrying on special economic zone business.

Clause 20 prohibits restrictions from being placed on the transfer of any investment in or by a special economic zone enterprise within a special economic zone. Clause 20 also allows a non-Caymanian to own, hold, freely transfer, securitize, raise security or list the legal or beneficial title of any or all of his equity in any development companies or special economic zone enterprises.

Clause 21 prohibits the transfer or assignment of a trade certificate.

Clause 22 provides for the validity of a trade certificate and for an annual fee to be paid by a special economic zone enterprise.

Clause 23 provides for amendments to trade certificates.

Clause 24 provides for changes to the address, corporate identity or scope of the business of a special economic zone enterprise to be notified to the Authority in writing.

Clause 25 provides for the voluntary surrender of a trade certificate.

Clause 26 provides for suspension or revocation of a trade certificate where a special economic zone enterprise contravenes a provision of the legislation, the Regulations or its trade certificate.

Clause 27 imposes a duty on the Authority to keep and maintain a register of all trade certificates and special economic zone enterprises.

Part 6 of the Bill contains clauses 28 to 30 which are miscellaneous provisions.

Clause 28 provides expressly for the applicability of the Immigration Law (2010 Revision) to a special economic zone developer, a special economic zone enterprise and a director, partner, officer or employee of a special economic zone developer or special economic zone enterprise.

Clause 29 provides for the Authority to take action for contravention by a special economic zone enterprise of any requirements under the Law, the Regulations or a trade certificate. Clause 29 also gives the Authority, the Chief Immigration Officer and any other regulatory authorities in the Islands, in accordance with the relevant law in force in the Islands, the power to inspect any operation or facilities in a special economic zone for contravention of applicable requirements.

Clause 30 empowers the Governor in Cabinet, after consultation with the Authority, to make Regulations.

Schedule 2 contains the benefits accruing to Developer of Cayman Enterprise City.

Schedule 3 contains the benefits accruing to special economic zone enterprises located in Cayman Enterprise City.

4. (1) The Governor in Cabinet shall by Order designate a Department of Government as the Secretariat to the Authority.

(2) The Secretariat shall -

- (a) be responsible for the day to day administration of the Authority;
- (b) to the extent of the authority delegated in writing to the Secretariat by the Authority, be responsible for carrying out the functions of the Authority; and
- (c) record and keep the minutes of all meetings, proceedings and decisions of the Authority.

Functions of the Authority

5. (1) The functions of the Authority are to -

- (a) advise the Minister on all aspects of the establishment of special economic zones;
- (b) implement the policies and programmes of the Government with regard to special economic zones;
- (c) identify and map areas to be designated as special economic zones;
- (d) examine and process applications for the establishment of special economic zones and issue relevant approvals;
- (e) examine and process applications for trade certificates;
- (f) act as a 'one-stop' centre through which a special economic zone enterprise can channel all its applications for permits and facilities not handled directly by the Authority;
- (g) maintain current data on the performance in each special economic zone;
- (h) enforce within a special economic zone compliance with customs procedures and other requirements for preventing the unauthorized use of a special economic zone;
- (i) enforce compliance with the financial services procedures and other requirements for preventing the unauthorized use of approved special economic zone activities;
- (j) suspend or revoke the trade certificate of a special economic zone enterprise which is in contravention of this Law or any other law in force in the Islands; and

- (k) do all such other acts as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objective of the Authority or the exercise of its functions under this Law.

(2) The Authority shall, consistent with the performance of its duties under this Law, consult with departments and agencies of the Government having duties, aims or objects related to those of the Authority.

6. (1) The Authority shall have the power to facilitate -

Powers of the Authority

- (a) the procurement, management, reclamation and disposal of land and other property for the purposes of a special economic zone;
- (b) the carrying out of development works and other building operations in, on or in respect of a special economic zone; and
- (c) the preservation, maintenance, regulation, management and improvement of a special economic zone and the provision of additional facilities to it.

(2) No other provision of this Law by virtue of which any power is exercisable by the Authority shall be construed as limiting the effect of this section.

7. (1) The fact and any particulars of, or relating to, any matter falling for consideration by, or the decision of, the Authority shall be treated as confidential by each member of the Authority and the member shall not disclose any such fact or particulars otherwise than in the proper performance of his duties under this Law or in compliance with the order of a court.

Duty of confidentiality

(2) The failure by a member to comply with subsection (1) constitutes sufficient ground for the termination of his appointment.

(3) A member who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(4) Any allegation of a breach of subsection (1) shall be fully investigated by a constable of the rank of Inspector or above.

8. A member of the Authority is entitled to receive such remuneration in respect of each meeting attended as determined by the Governor in Cabinet from time to time.

Remuneration

9. (1) A member of the Authority shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of his functions,

Protection from liability and indemnification responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith.

(2) The Government shall indemnify a member of the Authority against all claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses incurred by that member in the discharge or purported discharge of his functions, responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law, except claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses caused by the bad faith of that member.

PART 3 - SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES

Declaration of special economic zone

10. (1) The Governor in Cabinet may by Order, on the recommendation of the Authority, declare a parcel or parcels of land, areas or locations in the Islands to be the whole or part of a special economic zone and such Order may add to or remove any parcel or parcels of land, areas or locations in the Islands from such special economic zone.

(2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall -

- (a) specify the name of the special economic zone;
- (b) specify the name of the developer of the special economic zone;
- (c) define the geographical limits of the special economic zone; and
- (d) specify the types of special economic zone business authorized to be carried on in the special economic zone

(3) This section shall not prejudice the right of any person having an interest in any lands within the special economic zone.

Special economic zone deemed to be outside of the Islands

(2010 Revision)

11. Notwithstanding any Law to the contrary, for the purposes of Parts VII and VIIIA and section 201(2)(f) of the Companies Law (2010 Revision), sections 4(1) and 9(1)(f) of the Exempted Limited Partnerships Law (2010 Revision) and section 18 of this Law, a special economic zone shall be deemed to be outside of the Islands and not in the Islands.

PART 4 - SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONE DEVELOPMENT AND OPERATION

12. (1) The Governor in Cabinet may by Order declare a person to be a developer for the purpose of developing and operating a special economic zone under this Law. Declaration of developer and benefits

- (2) An Order made under subsection (1) shall specify -
- (a) the name of the special economic zone which the developer is authorized to develop and operate;
 - (b) any conditions imposed on the developer; and
 - (c) any benefits other than those specified in the relevant Schedules.

(3) A developer and its subsidiaries shall be entitled to the benefits specified in the relevant Schedules to this Law, relating to the special economic zone specified in the Order.

(4) Neither a developer nor any of its subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a public authority, a statutory body or authority, or a body or entity of Government, for any purposes.

PART 5 - TRADE CERTIFICATES

13. (1) A person shall not carry on a special economic zone business within a special economic zone and the benefits described in this Part and the relevant Schedules shall not accrue unless the person holds a valid trade certificate for that purpose under this Law. Requirement for trade certificate

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of four years, or to both.

14. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person that is an exempted company or an exempted limited partnership that is desirous of carrying on a special economic zone business in a special economic zone shall submit an application to the Authority for a trade certificate in accordance with this Law and the Regulations. Application for trade certificate

(2) An application submitted under subsection (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by -

- (a) evidence that the person is -
 - (i) an exempted company that is registered as a special economic zone company; or
 - (ii) an exempted limited partnership,

in good standing;

- (b) a non-refundable prescribed application fee to be paid to the general revenue of the Islands; and
- (c) such other information or particulars as may be prescribed or required by the Authority.

(3) Notwithstanding section 15, where an incomplete application is submitted to the Authority under subsection (1), the Authority may require an applicant to complete and re-submit the application, subject to payment of the prescribed re-submission fee to the general revenue of the Islands.

(4) A person shall not -

- (a) in relation to any application submitted pursuant to this section; or
- (b) in relation to any information or particulars that the person is required to furnish pursuant to this section, make any representation or statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.

Request for further information

15. (1) Where an application is submitted to the Authority pursuant to section 14, the Authority may, within three working days of the receipt of an application, request additional information from the applicant for the purpose of considering the application.

(2) Where the Authority makes a request for information pursuant to subsection (1), the applicant shall submit that information within fourteen days of the request or within a further period of time granted and specified in writing by the Authority.

(3) The Authority shall not unreasonably refuse to give a further time period under subsection (2).

Grant or refusal of trade certificate

16. Where an application is submitted pursuant to section 14, the Authority shall within seven days of the application being made or additional information being received pursuant to section 15, as the case may be, grant or refuse the trade certificate and notify the applicant of the grant or the refusal and shall give the reasons in writing for a refusal.

17. (1) A trade certificate granted under section 16 shall -
- Issuance of trade certificate
- (a) be issued in the prescribed form;
 - (b) be issued on payment of the prescribed trade certificate fee to the general revenue of the Islands;
 - (c) specify the period of validity of the trade certificate;
 - (d) specify the special economic zone business that the special economic zone enterprise may conduct within the special economic zone;
 - (e) specify the name of the special economic zone in which the special economic zone enterprise is authorized to carry on the special economic zone business;
 - (f) specify the address of the premises from which the special economic zone business is to be carried on; and
 - (g) specify all terms and conditions, if any, in addition to those provided for in this Law or the Regulations, under which the trade certificate is granted.
- (2) The Authority shall, to the greatest possible extent consistent with the performance of its duties under this Law, consult with departments and agencies of the Government having duties or having aims or objects related to those of the Authority.
18. (1) A special economic zone enterprise shall be entitled to the benefits set out in the relevant Schedule relating to the special economic zone specified in the trade certificate issued to that special economic zone enterprise.
- Benefits of special economic zone enterprise and conditions
- (2) A special economic zone enterprise shall have as its principal purpose the carrying on of business mainly outside the Islands.
- (3) A special economic zone enterprise shall not trade in the Islands with any person, firm or corporation except for purposes that are ancillary to, or in furtherance of, its business carried on outside the Islands, but nothing in this section shall be construed so as to prevent such a special economic zone enterprise from effecting and concluding contracts in the Islands and exercising in the Islands all of its powers necessary or expedient for the carrying on of its business outside the Islands.
19. Price controls imposed under any Law in force in the Islands shall not apply to the sale of any article, goods or services sold or supplied by a special economic zone enterprise from or within a special economic zone in the course of carrying on special economic zone business.
- Price control
20. (1) Restrictions shall not be placed on the transfer of any investment in or by a special economic zone enterprise within a special economic zone and a
- Investments and securities

special economic zone enterprise shall not be restricted to investing in any other special economic zone enterprise.

(2) Notwithstanding any Law in force in the Islands to the contrary, a non-Caymanian may own, hold, freely transfer, securitize, finance, raise security or list the legal or beneficial title of any or all of his equity in (and up to one hundred per cent of the equity in) any development company or special economic zone enterprises.

Prohibition on transfer or assignment of trade certificate

21. A special economic zone enterprise shall not transfer or assign a trade certificate to any other person.

Validity of trade certificate and annual fee

22. (1) Subject to the voluntary surrender of a trade certificate under section 25 or suspension or revocation of a trade certificate under section 26, a trade certificate shall be valid for the period specified in the trade certificate.

(2) A special economic zone enterprise shall, annually on or before every 31st January of every year after the first issuance of the trade certificate, pay to the general revenue of the Islands the prescribed annual fee in respect of the trade certificate.

(3) A special economic zone enterprise who fails to pay the prescribed annual fee by the date specified in subsection (2) shall pay to the general revenue of the Islands a surcharge not exceeding one-twelfth of the prescribed annual fee for every month or part of a month that the prescribed annual fee is not paid.

(4) If the prescribed annual fee referred to in subsection (2) is not paid, the unpaid prescribed annual fee may be sued for by the Government by action as a civil debt and the Authority may require, and the court may order, the payment of any surcharge accrued under subsection (3) in respect of the late payment of the prescribed annual fee.

Amendment to trade certificate

23. On application made by a special economic zone enterprise in the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed amendment fee, the Authority may amend the applicant's trade certificate, among other things to -

- (a) change or include additional addresses or premises at which the special economic zone business may be carried on;
- (b) change the name of the special economic zone enterprise; or
- (c) vary any term or condition of a trade certificate.

Notification of changes of address, etc.

24. Notwithstanding section 23, every special economic zone enterprise that during the currency of the trade certificate changes its address or corporate identity or the scope of its business shall forthwith notify the Authority in writing.

25. A special economic zone enterprise shall, within thirty days of voluntarily ceasing to carry on special economic zone business, give notice in writing to the Authority and surrender its trade certificate which shall be deemed to be invalid from the date the holder ceased to carry on special economic zone business or such other date as determined by the Authority.

Voluntary surrender of trade certificate

26. (1) Where a special economic zone enterprise contravenes the provisions, terms or conditions of this Law, the Regulations or its trade certificate, the Authority, after proper notice and hearing, may suspend or revoke the trade certificate.

Suspension or revocation of trade certificate

(2) A trade certificate that is revoked is invalid.

(3) A trade certificate that is suspended is invalid for the period of the suspension.

27. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority shall keep and maintain a register of all trade certificates and special economic zone enterprises, in the form determined by the Authority which may be in electronic form.

Register

(2) The Authority shall record the following particulars in the Register for each trade certificate and special economic zone enterprise -

- (a) the number, date of issue and date of expiry of the trade certificate;
- (b) the name of the special economic zone enterprise;
- (c) the postal address of the special economic zone enterprise;
- (d) the address of the premises at which the special economic zone business is being carried on;
- (e) the type of special economic zone business permitted to be carried on; and
- (f) the terms and conditions of the trade certificate.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Authority shall allow -

- (a) the public access to the Register and shall take necessary measures to give effect to the same; and
- (b) a person to inspect the Register and make a copy of any part of the Register on payment of the prescribed fee.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be read as abrogating any provision of any Law in force in the Islands that restricts access to records.

PART 6 - MISCELLANEOUS

- Application of Immigration Law (2010 Revision)
28. Subject to this Law and for the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of the Immigration Law (2010 Revision) shall apply to a developer, a special economic zone enterprise and a director, partner, officer or employee of a developer or a special economic zone enterprise.
- Enforcement
29. (1) The Authority may take action in accordance with this Law for contravention of any requirements under this Law, the Regulations or a trade certificate by a special economic zone enterprise.
- (2) The Authority, the Chief Immigration Officer and any other regulatory authority in the Islands shall in accordance with the relevant law in force in the Islands have authority to inspect any operation or facilities in a special economic zone for contravention of applicable requirements.
- Regulations
30. The Governor in Cabinet may, after consultation with the Authority, make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Law to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Law and, in particular, to -
- (a) determine application procedures;
 - (b) determine criteria for the grant of trade certificates;
 - (c) determine procedures for providing the benefits accruing to developers or special economic zone enterprises;
 - (d) ensure adequate security within such special economic zones which, by their nature require such provisions;
 - (e) prescribe the fees payable pursuant to this Law;
 - (f) determine the form of trade certificates to be issued under this Law and the procedures for amendment, suspension and revocation of trade certificates; and
 - (g) require information from developers and special economic zone enterprises.
